FALL FAMILY NIGHT

We will not have our annual Trunk or Treat this year due to not having enough host trunks and the cost of treats for all. However, we will have a Fall Family Night on Saturday October 28th beginning at 4:00 pm. Pizza, Hot Dogs, Smores and drinks. Children may dress up and bring a friend. Activities for all. A great opportunity to invite a neighbor or friend.

OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD

The amazing journey of a simple shoebox gift begins with you and me. Grab an Operation Christmas Child shoebox Today, pack it with toys, hygiene items and school supplies and become a partner in the ministry of a child. Collection date is Sunday, November 19TH. Questions can be directed to Sandy Graeff. This is always a wonderful project for us at Snyder’s Church.

A DEFEATED BABE RUTH

Babe Ruth had hit 714 home runs during his baseball career and was playing one of his last full major league games. It was the Braves versus the Reds in Cincinnati. But the great Ruth was no longer as agile as he had once been. He fumbled the ball and threw badly, and in one inning alone his errors were responsible for most of the five runs scored by Cincinnati. As the Babe walked off the field after the third out and headed toward the dugout, a crescendo of yelling and booing reached his ears. Just then a boy jumped over the railing onto the playing field. With tears streaming down his face, he threw his arms around the legs of his hero. Ruth didn’t hesitate for one second. He picked up the boy, hugged him, and set him down on his feet, patting his head gently. The noise from the stands came to an abrupt halt. Suddenly there was no more booing. In fact, hush fell over the entire park. In those brief moments, the fans saw two heroes: Ruth, who in spite of his dismal day of the field could still care about a little boy; and the small lad, who cared about the feelings of another human being. Both had melted the hearts of the crowd. (Ted W. Engstrom, The Pursuit of Excellence, 1982, Zondervan Corporation, pp. 66-67)

I suspect that Ruth did feel defeated at that moment but it was a tender and moving act for him to pick that boy up. I suppose that is what Jesus is trying to get across to Peter. Life can deal us some pretty difficult blows, many of which we inflict upon ourselves, but if we love Christ well find a way to shake'em off and help those around us. And maybe, just maybe, people will notice for once, stop their booing, and hearts will be changed.
