EAGLE AWARD CEREMONY
 The Eagle Award Ceremony for Ryan Ciccocioppo will be held Today at 3:00 pm at Snyder's Church Sanctuary (New Location) with the meal to follow in the Social Hall. We are really proud of Ryan's accomplishment.

REPORTING ON GENERAL CONFERENCE OF THE UMC
 On Wednesday May 1st the delegates of the UMC voted 692-51 to remove a rule that bans "self-avowed practicing homosexuals" from being ordained or appointed as a minister, according to the Associated Press. On Tuesday April 30 the delegates voted to remove mandatory penalties for conducting same-sex marriages. Also by a vote of 516 - 203 the General Conference delegates supported the end of a disaffiliation policy which means UMC churches no longer have the option of disaffiliation.. For us at Snyder's Church this affirms the vote and decision we made a year ago to disaffiliate from the UMC and become a member of the Global Methodist Church. Now is an excellent time for all of us to invite those Christian members of the UMC who are upset with this ruling to become part of the GMC and especially Snyder's Church....to encourage being faithful to the Scriptures and our Wesleyan heritage. Watch for more information in the coming days. Continue to Pray that the Lord will always be lifted up and we will praise God for His faithfulness. St. John 15:3 reads "You have already been cleansed by the word that I have spoken to you!"

MOTHER'S DAY SERVICE
Next Sunday, JoAnn McMillen, the Perry County lady who received a liver transplant donation from an Amish woman, is sharing her faith and this special journey. Invite someone to church!

TRUE MIRACLES
 Once upon a time a group of disciples asked an elder, "Does your God work miracles?"

The elder said, "Well, it all depends on what you mean by a miracle. Some people say it's a miracle that God does the will of the people. We say, it's a miracle when people do the will of God."
