A Response to the Beatitudes

Then Jesus took his disciples up the mountain and gathered them around. He taught them saying:

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are the meek.

Blessed are they that mourn.

Blessed are the merciful.

Blessed are they who thirst for justice.

Blessed are you when persecuted.

Blessed are you when you suffer.

Be glad and rejoice for your reward is great in heaven.

Then Simon Peter said, "Are we supposed to write this down?"

And Andrew asked, "Are we supposed to know this?"

And James asked, "Will we have a test on this?"

And Phillip said, "I don't have any paper."

And Bartholomew asked, "Do we have to turn this in?"

And John said, "The other disciples didn't have to learn this."

And Matthew asked, "Can I go to the boys' room?"

And Judas asked, "What does this have to do with real life?"

Then one of the Pharisees who was present asked to see Jesus' lesson plan and inquired of Jesus, "Where is your objectives and lesson plan?"

And Jesus wept.

Northeast Global Methodist Church to Host 2025 Annual Conference in Cortland, New York

May 8-10, 2025

The Global Methodist Church, now two years old, is experiencing remarkable growth worldwide. In the Northeast United States, the church comprises 187 congregations spanning 13 states, from Maine to West Virginia. Officially launched in January 2024, the Northeast region held its inaugural Convening Annual Conference in April. The Conference is now fully operational and preparing for its 2025 Annual Conference, where members and leaders will come together to worship, celebrate ministry growth, and recommit to the mission of “making disciples of Jesus Christ and spreading scriptural holiness across the globe.”

The Reverend Steven Taylor, Conference Superintendent of the Northeast Global Methodist Church, has announced that the 2025 Annual Conference will take place at Grace Christian Fellowship in Cortland, NY. This annual gathering is a cornerstone event for the church, bringing together leaders and volunteers for prayer, worship, strategic planning, and administrative actions.

Reflecting on the church's progress, Reverend Taylor stated, “After years of praying and working, we are now able to focus on refining our ministry structure and strengthening our missional focus to support continued growth throughout the Northeast. We live in the least-churched region of the U.S., but also have the largest population of any Global Methodist Annual Conference. The world truly is our parish!”

The theme for the 2025 Conference is “Fanning the Flame”, inspired by 2 Timothy 1:6-8:
“For this reason I remind you to fan into flame the gift of God, which is in you through the laying on of my hands. For the Spirit God gave us does not make us timid, but gives us power, love, and self-discipline. So do not be ashamed of the testimony about our Lord or of me his prisoner. Rather, join with me in suffering for the gospel, by the power of God.”

More information will be coming soon about the 2025 Annual Conference agenda, keynote speakers, leaders, and arrangements, which you'll be able to find at <https://northeastgmc.org>. Questions can be directed to: info@northeastgmc.org

"A New Church For A New Day!"

Devotional from Conference Superintendent - Rev. Steven Taylor

But when the fullness of time had come, God sent his Son, born of a woman, born under the law, in order to redeem those who were under the law, so that we might receive adoption as children. Galatians 4:4-5

The word redemption means the action of regaining or gaining possession of something in exchange for payment, or clearing a debt. (google. com) When I think of redemption, I think of making something right or putting it back the way it was in the first place, by design. Maybe you have more to add to that, as you think about it. Yet, in God's eyes, redemption has a very specific focus, and a very broad result.

In our scripture for today, the Apostle Paul wrote that when the time was right, God sent Jesus, born in a way that was both natural and divine, and to a people that were restrained and striving under the Jewish Law. The result of that birth was the in-breaking of the Kingdom of God on earth, forevermore. That in-breaking Kingdom will come to full reveal when Jesus - the One born of a woman and under the law - returns to make all things right. In other words, when Jesus returns, we will be fully redeemed.

The amazing thing about God's plan in Jesus is that the redemption that will be fully realized when Jesus returns is the promised hope of our lives today! See, because, when we have hope that there is an everlasting promise of redemption, that redemption impacts our lives today. No matter what you're going through or how life is dealing some difficulties this season, know that Jesus IS the promise of ultimate redemption - of clearing the debt for all our sin and regaining the very nature of the image of God in each of us. You are redeemed! This Advent season, I pray that your redemption leads to freedom and joy, as you reflect on all that Jesus' arrival meant and means to us. Blessed Advent to you and yours!
