PARABLE OF THE TWO FIVE DOLLAR BILLS

Two men stood in the payroll line and received identical pays. Each extracted some money from the pay envelope and put it in his own pocket. One took a five dollar bill into the corner saloon and for friendship sake bought a round of drinks. The other man took his five dollar bill and saved it for Church. The five dollars was used to buy Sunday School lesson material. The lesson taught world brotherhood and friendship in Christ. There were echoes from the first five dollar bill and there were echoes from the second five dollar bill – both for friendship sake! The serial numbers on the five dollar bills were different and the results were far different. Which five dollar bill was worth the most? Which man was really building friendship? Jesus said, "Ye are my friend, if ye do whatsoever I command you; henceforth I call you not servants, but friends."

Greater Is He That Is In You, Than He That Is In The World.
