A SPECIAL THANK-YOU to the Ladies Aide Society and all who helped with the meal preparation, cooking and desserts for the Shrove Tuesday dinner this past week. It was delicious and the fellowship was great.

THE ONLY EASTER SOME WILL KNOW

Jesus returns from the dead and meets his disciples in different places: the garden, the Emmaus Road, the seashore, the Upper Room. He witnesses to them that he is alive, this guy back from the dead with a body. He isn't content to send them a postcard from heaven: HAVING A GREAT TIME.
 WISH YOU WERE HERE. No. He shows up among them as his own witness. And he recruits as witnesses those other people with bodies. He wants them to move out and tell everyone who will listen and everyone who won't that bodies count, that he's back from the dead with a body, threatening them with life. Those who recognize this witness become witnesses themselves. They put their bodies on the line. They become contagious with the forgiveness they've caught, carriers of resurrection. That's what this back-to-life Jesus wants of us: not names on a list, or what someone has called "pew potatoes." Jesus wants us as witnesses. Not airy spirits or pious ghosts, but bodies like his own with wounds to show, bodies that witness to resurrection, threatening the world with life. For the only Easter some people may ever see is the Easter they see in you and me.

This series provides inspiration during the Lenten season, now through the Sunday following Easter. I haven't shared this for awhile and thought some of you may want to use this during Lent.
