July/August Newsletter

Dear Snyder's Church Family and Friends,

JEREMY GOODLING MUSIC MINISTRY

We will be blessed on Sunday July 20th to have Jeremy Goodling from McAlisterville to share his music and ministry with us at Snyder's Church. Including Southern Gospel, Praise & Worship and Light Contemporary Music. Jeremy has been singing Gospel music for over 30 years now and has been with us in the past. We are blessed to have him with us on July 20th at our 9:00 AM Service.

There will be a free-will love offering received for his music ministry. Then there will be a Brunch Fellowship following the Worship Service. You are asked to bring a dish to share and plan to be with us. Jeremy will have music and his wife's new book available for purchase as well.

WE ARE BLESSED INDEED!

Isn't it wonderful to know that there are Christian lawyers in this day in which we live. At Snyder's Church were blessed on Father's Day to have Atty. David Wilson share with us "Father's Need Faith!" David attends our services at Snyder's Church. We are also blessed to have Atty. Mark Allshouse in our area who served as our legal representative when we disaffiliated from the UMC two years ago. Let's thank God each day for these two very special people who inspire and have inspired us at Snyder's Church.

SODA TABS AND USED EYEGLASSES

Save your soda tabs for Ronald McDonald's House and put them in the plastic container near the office. Ickesburg Lions Club collects used eyeglasses and you can place them in the box provided in the Narthex. These are two wonderful projects for us at Snyder's Church.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL 2025 REPORT:

Diana has reported the following information as a result of our Vacation Bible School held recently:

VBS Offering	$605.27
Mission Offering	678.66
Special Mission Gifts	325.00	$1,003.66

This means that each EMS at New Bloomfield and Duncannon will receive $501.83 from our Vacation Bible School. Praise the Lord for this wonderful gift to help our communities.

A total of 75 children were registered for VBS and we had an average attendance of 71 each day.

A special thank you at this time to everyone who helped in anyway to make VBS such a joy for all. Without the help and support of so many this wonderful ministry of sharing Jesus with our larger community would not have been possible. The Annual VBS has been a mutual ministry for many years of Roseglen, Dellville and Snyder Churches.

Diana concluded her report by sharing: God is good! God is wonderful! God is marvelous!

FROM THE FINANCE COMMITTEE – Since this is a combined July/August newsletter we have enclosed 2 offering and 2 return envelopes to be used if you are not going to be with us. We count on the faithful and cheerful giving of our entire church family to help us meet all of our financial obligations. With Darryl's illness, much of the responsibility has been given to Sandy and Gary to help and for that we are most grateful.

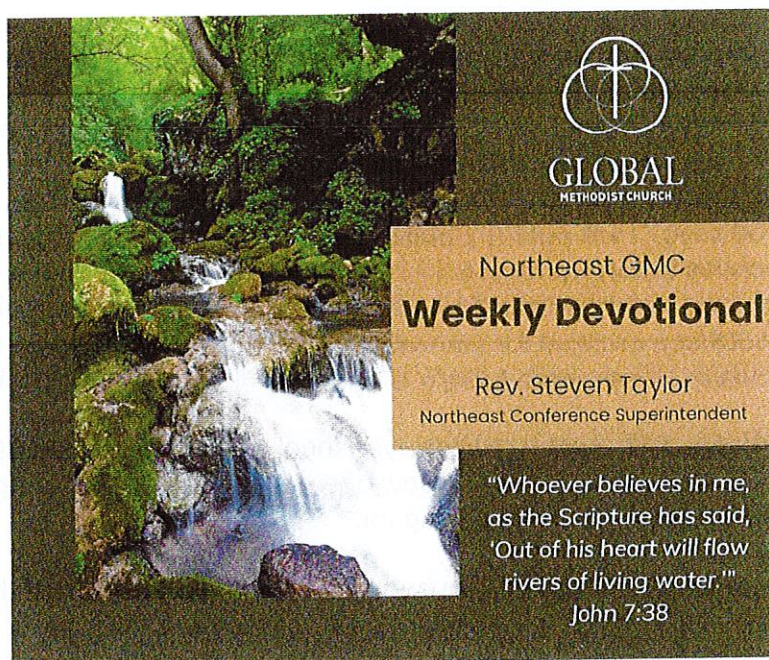

HAVE YOU NOTICED that each of the flower stands have been restored and refinished by Dwayne and they are just beautiful! He is now restoring the pulpit and that is going to take a while as there is a lot of need to be done for it to be returned to our Sanctuary. Previously all of the loose pews were tightened down and polyurethane has been placed on the ends of each pew. And of course the entire upstairs area has been repainted/repaired as needed and we are blessed indeed to have this project completed.

"I will put my Spirit in you and you will live, and I will settle you in your own land. Then you will know that I the Lord have spoken, and I have done it, declares the Lord."
Ezekiel 37:14 (NIV)

Welcome back to this mini-series that I'm calling Awaken - where we explore how God stirs hearts and moves in our world today. I want to ask you something upfront: when revival happens—when God breathes new life into His people—what does it look like? What should we do?

Well, let me tell you this: revival isn't a strategy. It's not a new church program or a louder worship set. Revival is when God shows up and does what only He can do. Think back with me. Do you remember where you were on September 11, 2001? Most of us do. But here's a better question: who were you with? You see, moments like that aren't just historical—they're communal. In the aftermath, people turned to church. Prayer vigils filled sanctuaries. Some called it revival. But it didn't last. Why?

Because fear-based revival fades. What we need is a Spirit-based awakening—a move of God that begins not in fear but in faith. And that starts not with what we do... but with what only God can do.

Ezekiel 37 gives us a powerful image: a valley full of dry bones. Lifeless. Hopeless. And then God asks Ezekiel, "Can these bones live?" And Ezekiel answers, "Lord, only you know." What a powerful confession.

God doesn't respond with a lecture. He responds with a demonstration. He tells Ezekiel to prophesy. The bones rattle. Sinews form. Flesh appears. And then—God breathes His Spirit into them. And they live. A vast army rises from what was once a graveyard. That's revival. That's what God wants to do again.

In verse 14, God says, "I will put my Spirit in you and you will live." Sound familiar? The apostle Paul echoes this in Romans 8:11: "If the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead is living in you, he who raised Christ from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies..." It's not just a promise for someday. It's for right now. God wants to bring life where there's death. Hope where there's despair. Unity where there's division.

Samuel Wakefield, a 19th-century Wesleyan theologian, once said, "When the Spirit of God revives the soul, it is not a mere glow of emotion, but the rekindling of divine purpose." That's the revival we're asking for.

So how do we prepare? We start with humility. We confess that we're the dry bones. That the church, as it stands today, often feels scattered and cut off. But our God specializes in resurrection.

Then we listen. We let His Word speak again. We say, "Do it again, God." And finally, we invite the Holy Spirit to fill us—to breathe life into our churches, our families, our communities.

Because when the Word and the Spirit meet...that's when revival happens. Friends, this isn't just for somewhere else or someone else. It's for here. For now. For us.

Let me leave you with this challenge: Every morning this week, pray this simple prayer—"Do it again, God." Say it with boldness. Say it with belief. Because revival starts when we believe that what God has done before... He can do again.

Thanks for joining me on this Awaken journey. Be sure to come back next time, when we'll talk about what revival actually looks like when it takes root in the Church. Until then—stay awake, stay expectant, and stay filled.

God loves you and so do I!

Blessings,
