A LIFE IN WHICH TROUBLES ARE FACED AND CONQUERED

"Christianity was never meant to withdraw a man from life; it was meant to equip him better for life. Christianity does not offer us escape from problems; it offers us a way to solve our problems. Christianity does not offer us an easy peace; it offers us a triumphant warfare. Christianity does not offer us a life in which troubles are escaped and evaded; it offers us a life in which troubles are faced and conquered."

Barclay, The Daily Study Bible, The Gospel of John, Vol. 2, page 252
