WESLEY'S CONUNDRUM

There is an interesting note in the writings of John Wesley, patron saint of the Methodists. Wesley had a most enviable problem. He was committed to a life of relative austerity. Christ was indeed first in his life. He saw how material possessions could be a negative encumbrance to his ministry. Yet his writings made him quite prosperous. With this insight in mind he stated on one occasion, "I do not see how it is possible...for any revival to continue long. Religion must necessarily produce industry and these cannot but produce riches. As riches increase so will pride, anger and the love of the world." Do you see the beautiful irony in his words? When people are spiritually revived, they will live more responsibly which can't help but make them prosper, which in turn is a danger to their souls.

To Snyder's Church Family and Friends,

I know that the month of October was very busy. But I want to thank everyone that helped with the Apple Dumplings, a Very Big Thank You! The donations of Apples – 4 Bushels, brown sugar, flour, butter, cinnamon and Crisco. It was all donated to us. And also monetary gifts with all of this, it paid for just about all our expenses. And that was a Wonderful Gift! God is Good! With our inside and outside orders we profited $921 which was GREAT!

Now our Holiday Bazaar, we couldn't have asked for all the help to make this 2025 year to happen. We had new people that came to me to help and I had asked Sherry to come forward for Darryl's position to help. And without a doubt, she said yes. Anything for Darryl! Our Silent Auction was a big hit, all the food and deserts were wonderful and also the White Elephant table too. I had 2 of my friends that came forward to help with the apple dumplings and kitchen help. That's what all churches are all about, reaching out for others. Our total for the Bazaar with the Apple Dumpling profit was $4,400. Thanks to our church family. ©
